The 1994 Season

The 1994 season saw the SouthWest Baseball Association expand by four teams to encompass the entire field of Major League Baseball. The four expansion teams first chose players from the two teams which hadn't yet entered the SWBA pool. The Montreal Expos and California Angels were the last MLB teams included in the SWBA. The un-owned players from the real-life expansion Florida Marlins and Colorado Rockies were added to the SWBA entry draft since most of the players on both of these teams had come from other MLB teams.

The expansion draft saw Larry Walker being chosen first overall by the Gaithersburg Black Sox. The Chicago Gangsters then selected Tim Salmon. Marquis Grissom and Wil Cordero went to Carlsbad and Dobson Ranch respectively to close out the first round.

The existing SWBA franchises then froze 15 players on their roster and the expansion franchises were able to draft from the unprotected players. One round consisted of each SWBA team losing a player. After losing one player, each team was then allowed to protect two more.

The first six seasons of the SWBA saw only 3 teams surpass the 100-win mark, while the 1994 season boasted 4 teams. This was probably directly due to the four expansion teams comprising an average record of 57-105 with only one of the four teams not finishing in last place in their division.

Two high-powered offenses met in Busch Memorial Stadium for Game 1 of the 1994 American League Championship Series. The game featured Cooler ace Scott Sanderson (18-5) against the Hornets' Pedro Astacio (13-5). After an uneventful first inning, the Coolers exploded for six runs in the top of the 2nd. Sean Berry led off with a walk then stole second base shortly after Al Martin lined to short. Dave Hollins then walked. Tony Fernandez then ripped a single into right center that scored Berry and sent Hollins to third. Jose Lind walked following a run-scoring balk by Astacio. Pedro got Lance Johnson to fly out to shallow right before Brian Harper drove in Fernandez with a single. John Olerud then chased Astacio to the showers by belting one out of the park. The rally ended against Bud Black as Bobby Kelly tried to stretch a double into a triple and was nailed by Roberto Alomar's relay. Sanderson took control of the game and allowed only one Hornet to reach second base while scattering four hits for the shutout.

|                |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |    |   |                              |

| Coolers | 0 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 4  | 9  | 1 | W-Candiotti L-Cormier |
| Hornets | 2 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 4 | x | 10 | 14 | 0 | HR-Berry, Blowers     |

The Hornets didn't want to go to California trailing 2-0, so they sent Tom Candiotti (20-9) to the hill for Game 2. His opponent was young lefty Rheal Cormier (8-9). The Hornets opened the scoring in the bottom of the 1st on a 2-out 2-RBI double by Mitch Webster. They added two more in the second behind RBI singles from Garry Sheffield and Tony Gwynn. The Coolers came storming back in the 4th as Sean Berry drilled a Candiotti knuckle ball into the cheap seats making it 4-3 Greensboro. Ozzie Guillen furnished some insurance in the 5th delivering a 2-RBI 2-out single up the middle. Doug Jones came on to finish out the inning and put out the fire. Mike Blowers put the game out of reach in the bottom of the 8th blasting a Steve Reed fastball over the left field wall to cap off a 4 run inning. Candiotti fanned 7 and allowed 7 hits over 8 innings for the win. Berry, T.Gwynn and Sheffield all had 3 hits.

|                |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |    |   |                                  |

| Hornets | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 10 | 1 | W-Sele L-Reynoso S-Orosco |
| Coolers | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 5  | 0 | HR-none                   |

The series switched to the friendly confines for Game 3. Armando Reynoso (15-6) squared off against Aaron Sele (6-6). A Dave Hollins single in the 2nd and a Roberto Alomar sacrifice fly in the 3rd were all the scoring in this one until the top of the 7th inning. Harold Baines led off with a double and scored immediately on Sheffield's single. Sheffield made it to second on the throw to the plate and scored on Guillen's single. A couple of base running blunders cost Greensboro a potentially huge inning as Guillen got nailed by Lance Johnson's throw at third base and on the next pitch, Wayne Kirby got picked off first 1-3-6. Fortunately for the Hornets, the bullpen held onto the 3-1 lead. Sele got the win, Orosco, who pitched the 9th, got the save. Kirby and Alomar each had 2 hits.

A determined Pedro Astacio took to the mound in Game 4. He was out to avenge the beating he took in Game 1. His teammates were behind him 110% as they jumped all over Cooler starter Todd Burns (6-6). A run-scoring wild pitch by Burns followed by a 3-run dinger by Sheffield spotted the Hornets a 4-run lead. Astacio got the jitters again as he watched Bobby Kelly's blast down the left field line clear the ivy. Pedro settled down though and allowed only two hits over the next 7.1 innings. In the mean time, his teammates tallied 6 more runs. Pedro headed to the showers with a 10-2 lead going into the 9th. Xavier Hernandez was called on to close it out, but the never-say-die Coolers would hear nothing of it. Dave Hollins drilled a Hernandez pitch into the bleachers in right center to try to start a California rally. With their hats on backwards, the Coolers watched speedster Lance Johnson shoot one into the gap in right center that rolled all the way to the wall resulting in a 2-run triple. It looked like the rally would continue as the Hornets brought in Norm Charlton and his first pitch sailed all the way to the backstop to score Johnson from third. But, the rally ended as Charlton struck out Brian Harper and got the league's leading hitter, John Olerud (.363) to ground out to Alomar to end the game.

The Coolers had their backs to the wall. They were down 3-1 and were relying on Scott Sanderson to repeat his Game 1 dominance over the Hornets. Tom Candiotti was confident he could get his team to the promised land. The knuckleball was dancing on this day as Tom allowed only 3 hits in 7 innings allowing only 1 hit after the first inning. The scoring was provided by Andres Galarraga's single to left that plated Roberto Alomar in the first. The closest the Coolers came to a run was in the bottom of the first when Brian Harper tried to score from second on Bobby Kelly's single to left, but was nailed at the plate by Dion James. Rick Honeycutt and Norm Charlton finished it off with hitless 8th and 9th innings respectively. Roberto Alomar was named the ALCS MVP with a .385 average (5-13), .500 on-base and .538 slugging percentage.

The NLCS pitted the Arizona Apaches against the Cape Crusaders in a match up of the league's two best pitching staffs. Game One at Three Rivers Stadium, home of the Crusaders, featured a dream pitching match up of NL aces Greg Maddux for the Apaches against Jose Rijo of the Crusaders. The game began in cool 54 degree weather under threatening skies. The first tally of the series came quickly as a Mark Grace single scored Brett Butler, who had opened the series with a walk and subsequently stole second. Jeff Kent booted John Valentin's grounder in the 3rd inning to plate Butler, who had lined a one-out triple into the right field corner. Mickey Tettleton's 6th-inning homer to right-center inched the Apache lead to 3-0. This would be more offense than necessary for Greg Maddux and four relievers, as the Crusader offense was held to one unearned run, managing just six hits and one walk. Maddux squelched the lone Cape threat in the seventh when he induced Felix Jose to bounce to second with the bases loaded, after John Valentin's error had allowed the lone Crusader run to score. Roberto Hernandez punched out Troy Neel and Bobby Bonilla to close out the game and give the Apaches a 1-0 lead in the series. Mark Grace was the offensive star for the Arizona club, going 3-3 with one RBI and one walk. Barry Larkin had two hits and stole a base to lead the meager Crusader attack.

The skies had cleared for Game Two, played in 62 degree weather, with a stiff 16 mph wind blowing out to center field. The principals for the second tilt were Ken Hill for the Apaches and Jack McDowell for the Crusaders. The Apaches were dealt a severe blow in the bottom of the second when Ken Hill's nagging groin injury flared up again and he had to be removed from the game. The injury would shelve Hill for the remainder of the NLCS. Thus began a stifling march of Apache hurlers to the Three Rivers Stadium mound. Five Arizona relievers would scatter six hits over the final eight innings, allowing just one run, walking three while striking out seven. Consecutive run-scoring singles in the fourth by Mark Grace and Greg Vaughn gave the Apaches a 2-0 lead. Troy Neel's 2-out single in the 6th plated Len Dykstra, who had walked to lead off the inning, to narrow the margin to 2-1. Arizona put the game away in the 9th on run-scoring singles in the fourth by Chip Hale and Brett Butler off Crusader reliever Mike Jackson. Roberto Hernandez pitched the final two innings to save his second consecutive game and give the Apaches a 2-0 lead in the best-of-seven series. McDowell, though he pitched well, was saddled with the loss for the stunned Crusaders. Pedro A. Martinez squirmed out of two two-on, no-out jams to register the win for Arizona. Butler, John Valentin and Jose Oquendo all had two hits for the Apaches. Neel and Rick Wilkins had two singles apiece to pace another sub-par Crusader offensive output.

The teams headed west as Cape faced a must-win situation in Game 3. Pat Hentgen had the responsibility of keeping the Crusaders in the series and was opposed by Bob Tewksbury. The game began under excellent conditions, 71 degrees under partly cloudy skies at Oakland-Alameda Coliseum. Troy Neel's two-out single in the 3rd scored Barry Larkin, who had singled and stolen second. A Hentgen wild pitch moved Mickey Tettleton to second base in the bottom of the 5th, enabling him to score on Steve Buechele's two-out single to left, evening the score at one. Eric Karros provided the winning margin for the Crusaders in the 7th when, pinch-hitting for Hentgen, he blasted a 3-run homer to right off Tewksbury to give Cape a 4-1 lead. Arizona was not finished, however, as they drove two runs home in the eighth on a Jeff McNeely pinch-hit triple that drove home Darrin Fletcher, and Chip Hale's two-out single. Lee Smith dashed any hopes of an Arizona comeback by pitching a perfect ninth inning to save the win for Hentgen. Larkin played a starring role for Cape with three singles and three stolen bases.

| Apaches   | 1 | 0 | 3 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | x | 5 | 10 | 0 |   | HR-Wilkins, Vaughn 2 |

Arizona sent ace Greg Maddux back to the hill in Game 4 to face Jose Rijo in a rematch of the Game 1 starters. A cool front had blown through Arizona, as the game began under clear, 54-degree skies with the wind blowing out to center at 12 MPH. The Apaches took a quick 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first on Greg Vaughn's fielder's choice grounder, though Rijo escaped further damage by inducing Chip Hale to bounce to third with the bases loaded. Cape quickly tied the score in the 2nd on Rick Wilkins' leadoff homer, which curled just inside the right field foul pole. It was Vaughn again in the 3rd as he blasted a 3-run homer to right off Rijo to give the Apaches a 4-1 lead. Vaughn's second homer of the game, leading off the 5th, chased Rijo and gave Arizona an insurmountable (with Greg Maddux pitching) 5-1 lead. The Crusaders threatened in the 8th, loading the bases before Maddux struck out Troy Neel for the third time in the ball game to kill the potential rally. The Crusaders would not die, however, and loaded the bases again in the 9th before Pedro Martinez retired Freddie Benavides on a weak fly ball to left to give the apaches a commanding 3-1 series lead. Maddux was brilliant in notching his second series victory, scattering five hits over eight innings, walking just one while striking out 10 Crusaders batsmen. Greg Vaughn was en fuego, driving in all five Apache runs on three hits, including those two homers.

Arizona sent fifth starter Trevor Wilson to the hill to try and lift the Apaches to the SWBA World Series for the third time. Cape countered with Game 2 starter Jack McDowell. Both pitchers appeared frightened when they noted the wind, which was blowing out to center at 21 MPH at game time. The temperature was 53 degrees under cloudy Arizona skies. Cape served notice that they still had life, pushing across five runs in the 3rd inning, two coming on a Barry Larkin double into the right field corner. Troy Neel capped the inning with a three-run homer to right-center, silencing the capacity crowd. It would be all the offense Cape would need, as McDowell and relievers Mike Jackson and Lee Smith were aided by three clutch double plays by the Crusader infield and held the Apaches to just two runs. Neel's homer was the key blow, while Larkin and Len Dykstra chipped in two hits apiece. Ron Karkovice had two hits including a double, but the Apaches' failure to hit in the clutch sent the series back to Three Rivers Stadium for Game 6.

|                  |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |                                |

Arizona again tried to kill the Cape Crusaders, but late-inning drama once again denied the Apaches a berth in the SWBA World Series. Ken Hill's injury forced the Apaches to send Bob Tewksbury to the mound for his second NLCS start. Opposing Tewks once again was Game 3 victor Pat Hentgen. Cloudy skies and a 55-degree temperature greeted the division winners as they took the field for Game 6. The wind was blowing left to right at 9 MPH. The Apaches struck quickly as Greg Vaughn's bad hop single plated Mark Grace in the 1st inning. Arizona tallied again in the 2nd as a Pat Hentgen fastball sailed too far inside and hit Brett Butler with the bases loaded to force in Mickey Tettleton, who had lined a one-out triple into the right field corner. Cape drew within a run in the 5th when Barry Larkin doubled home Jeff Kent. The Crusaders took the lead in the next inning on RBI singles by Troy Neel and Jeff Kent, chasing Tewksbury. Arizona answered immediately, reclaiming the lead in the top of the 7th as Luis Gonzalez greeted Crusaders' reliever Mike Jackson with a 2-run homer down the right field line. With a lead in hand and Roberto Hernandez in the bullpen, it appeared the Apaches were on their way to the pennant. However, the Crusaders were not finished. With two out in the 8th, Rick Wilkins drove Matt Turner's 3-2 pitch out of the park, just inside the right field foul pole. Two Crusader errors in the top of the 9th helped load the bases with Apaches, but Lee Smith whiffed pinch hitter Jeff McNeely to end the inning. Felix Jose singled off Hernandez to lead off the bottom of the 9th, but Barry Larkin grounded into a double play to erase him. Tim Naehring lined a single to left to keep the inning alive. Eric Davis, pinch running for Naehring, drew a wild pickoff throw from Hernandez that advanced him to second. Game 3 hero Eric Karros, pinch hitting for Lee Smith, followed with a line single to left, scoring Davis and forcing a Game 7. Lee Smith picked up the win for Cape with two scoreless relief innings, while the unearned run Hernandez allowed saddled him with the loss.

The dramatics of Game 6 would be hard to surpass, but a sellout crowd filled Three Rivers Stadium under clear-skied, 61 degree weather conditions, hoping to see further heroics from their hometown Cape Crusaders. This one had all the elements of a classic, with the third edition of Greg Maddux vs. Jose Rijo in the offing. The Apaches were confident they couldn't lose, what with the best pitcher in baseball on the mound. After fighting back from a 3-1 series deficit, the Crusaders had momentum clearly on their side. The momentum continued as the Crusaders sent the crowd into hysterics by tagging Maddux with 4 runs after four innings. Rijo escaped a bases-loaded, 1st inning jam as Len Dykstra made a brilliant, sliding catch of Mickey Tettleton's sinking liner. Bobby Bonilla's solo homer to right notched the first Cape run in the 2nd inning. Two more runs scored in the 3rd, the first on Barry Larkin's RBI groundout and Jeff Kent's RBI single. A Maddux throwing error sent Felix Jose home from second in the 4th to give Cape a 4-0 lead. The game and series seemed in hand as Jose Rijo was in complete command, retiring 15 straight Arizona hitters after a walk to Greg Vaughn with two out in the first. Consecutive one-out singles in the 6th by John Valentin and Darrin Fletcher brought Game 4 hero Greg Vaughn to the plate. Vaughn drove Rijo's first pitch deep into the right field bleachers, silencing the partisan crowd and trimming the Crusader lead to 4-3. The Apaches proceeded to tie the score with 2 out in the 8th off Rijo, as Luis Gonzalez lined on 0-1 pitch into left, plating Ron Karkovice. Mike Jackson retired the Apaches in the 9th and Arizona ace reliever Roberto Hernandez took the mound to start the bottom of the 9th. Hernandez retired leadoff batter Jeff Kent on a lazy fly ball to center, to bring up Rick Wilkins, whose 8th inning homer had tied Game 6. Wilkins blasted Hernandez's 2-2 fastball into the right field seats to send the crowd into delirium and give the Cape Crusaders a 4-3 NLCS victory and their first SWBA World Series berth. With his .360 average, three homers and late inning heroics, Wilkins was named NLCS MVP. Greg Vaughn was brilliant in a losing cause for the Apaches, posting a .308 average with three homers and 10 RBI.

The World Series opened in a cool Three Rivers Stadium. It was a clear, breezy, 56 degree night. The wind was blowing out to right at 15 mph. Both teams had their aces aboard as Tom Candiotti (20-9) was up against Jack McDowell (24-7). The game turned quickly into a pitching duel as expected, despite the favorable left-handed hitting wind conditions. Andres Galarraga put Greensboro up with 2 out in the 4th by drilling a McDowell fastball over the wall. In the bottom of the 4th, the Crusaders struck for a pair of unearned runs on Rick Wilkins' two-out two-run shot that plated Lenny Dykstra who had reached on an error. The Crusaders added some insurance in the 8th as Joe Carter singled, went to second on a sacrifice bunt, stole third and scored on Dykstra's sacrifice fly. Lee Smith came on to close it out in the 9th, but Harold Baines greeted him with a pinch-hit homerun to make it 3-2. One out later Tony Gwynn singled, swiped second, moved to third on a fly to right, but was stranded there as Galarraga grounded out to short. Wilkins still hot off his NLCS MVP performance went 2-3 with a homerun and stolen base. Tom Candiotti completed the game giving up only 2 hits and fanning 3 while his counterpart Jack McDowell allowed only 2 hits while striking out 7 in 7.1 innings.

A brisk 49 degree October night hosted Game 2 of the 1994 World Series. The Hornets sent their number one pick Aaron Sele to the mound trying to even it up. The Hornets stung 22 game winner Jose Rijo with a pair of run-scoring fielder's choice grounders in the first. Rick Wilkins, have you heard that name before, got the Crusaders going in the bottom half with a two-out double that scored Len Dykstra. Jeff Kent got to the youngster in the 3rd, drilling a belt high fastball over the left center field wall that also drove in Barry Larkin. With 2 outs in the bottom of the 4th, Sele's elbow stiffened up after 4 wild ones to Dykstra and the Hornets replaced him with veteran lefty Bud Black. Black put out the fire and pitched well for 1.1 innings, long enough for the Hornets to tie it on Devon White's single and go ahead on Tony Gwynn's single. Five members of the Greensboro pen marched out and did their job as the Hornets held on for a 4-3 victory. Bud Black got the win, Rijo was tagged with the "L". Rick Wilkins led all hitters with a 3-5 day.

Game 3

| Hornets   | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 3 | 1 | 0 | 0 | x | 5 | 10 | 1 | HR-Galarraga, Sheffield        |

Busch Stadium was the venue for Game 3. It was much warmer, 68 degrees, but it was partly cloudy and had been raining, so the field was wet. Pedro Astacio picked up where he left off in game 4 of the ALCS. He was dominant in this one, allowing only 2 hits in 7.2 innings for the win. His only tough spot was in the top of the 8th when he walked the bases loaded with two outs. He did give up a run-scoring single to Jeff Kent before yielding to Norm Charlton. Andres Galarraga delivered the big blow in this one, a two-out, three-run shot in the bottom of the 5th. Tony Gwynn and Dion James each had a pair of hits for the Hornets.

Game 4

This rematch of Game 1 saw a very mad "Mad Jack" McDowell take the hill for the Crusaders. He scattered 7 hits and struck out 4. The only rough time was the 2-run single he gave up to Harold Baines in the bottom of the 6th. He sat down the last ten batters he faced for the complete game. Offensively, Len Dykstra was 3-5 with 2 RBI and 4 stolen bases in the leadoff spot. Joe Carter hit a 3-run shot in the top of the 6th that provided all the offense McDowell would need. Tom Candiotti was branded with his second loss of the series.

Game 5

It was a 67 degree night with a pitcher's delight - a 15 MPH wind blowing in from center field. For 3 and a half innings, it looked like the weather man was dictating the game as the teams combined for only 3 hits. The Hornets opened the scoring in the bottom of the 6th when Andres Galarraga singled home Dion James. Two batters later, Galarraga scored on Garry Sheffield's sacrifice fly to right just before Harold Baines was thrown out at third by Felix Jose. An RBI single by Baines and bases-loaded triple by Ozzie Guillen chased Jose Rijo to the showers. Reliever Paul Quantrill balked home Guillen and gave up an RBI single to Roberto Alomar and suddenly it was 8-0 Hornets. When it rains, it pours as the Hornets were not done. They tallied an SWBA World Series record 10 runs in the 7th inning as 15 batters went to the plate. Three Hornets had 2 hits apiece in the 7th inning alone; Harold Baines had an RBI-double and RBI-single, Andres Galarraga had a pair of singles and an RBI, and Guillen had a pair of singles with two RBI. For the game, Galarraga was 4-6 and Baines was 5-5. Aaron Sele went 7.1 innings giving up two hits and striking out 8. Greensboro's 18 runs surpassed the Tempe Tigers' 15 runs scored in Game 6 of the SWBA's second ever World Series in 1989.

Game 6

The Crusaders were thrilled to get out of Busch Stadium and return home to Three Rivers. The stadium was packed, the temperature was 63 degrees and the skies were partly cloudy. The wind favored the right handed hitters, blowing out to left at 14 MPH. The home town fans were eager to forget what they saw on television in Game 5 and were noisy as Pat Hentgen threw the first pitch. Roberto Alomar quieted them down a little as he ripped a single up the middle to lead off the inning. He then stole second and went to third on a strikeout-passed ball by Wilkins that allowed Dion James to take first. This was definitely not what the fans wanted to see. Everyone held their breath as Andres Galarraga took Felix Jose back to the warning track in right. Alomar skipped home for the 1-0 lead. The shock hadn't quite worn off yet when Garry Sheffield belted a high fastball to deep center field that silenced a stunned Cape crowd. Hentgen got Ozzie Guillen to ground out to second to end the inning. The crowd got back into it when Astacio tossed four sloppy ones to Len Dykstra for a leadoff walk in the bottom half. B.J. Surhoff then nailed Dykstra trying to swipe second. Barry Larkin flew out to center and suddenly there were two gone. Jeff Kent's grounder had eyes as it sneaked through the hole for a single. Rick Wilkins regained his heroic form and belted a curve ball over the fence down the right field line to get the crowd going again and make it 3-2 Greensboro. Alomar led off the 3rd with a homerun to left that proved to be the winning run. Dykstra doubled home Shane Mack, who ended an 0-16 Series with a leadoff single, in the bottom of the 5th. That ended up being the last hit for Cape as the Hornets' pitchers sat down 11 in a row and allowed only one base runner the rest of the way. Pedro Astacio was named the World Series MVP pitching 15.2 innings, giving up only 7 hits, striking out 10 batters, for a 2-0 record with a 2.30 ERA. The Greensboro Hornets become the first World Champions in the SouthWest Baseball Association after the league was divided into separate American and National Leagues.

GREENSBORO HORNETS

The SWBA's most successful regular season franchise finally took the crown. The Hornet franchise had never won less than the 86 games it did in the inaugural SWBA season. Prior to this season, they had won two division titles and lost the 1992 World Series to the Arizona Apaches. Coach Larry Taube guided the 1994 Hornets to an SWBA record 108 wins. Greensboro led the AL in hitting and pitching so it is easy to see why they went all the way.

Tony Gwynn was the brightest of the many offensive sparks. All Tony did was bat .369 with 33 doubles, 77 runs and 20 stolen bases. He did miss some time with injuries otherwise he would probably have won the batting crown. Gwynn was voted by the managers to the AL all-star team. Roberto Alomar came alive with a .345 performance, featuring 20 doubles, 8 triples and 15 homeruns. He led the team with 97 runs scored and 55 steals. The "Big Cat" Andres Galarraga found Busch Stadium to his liking and batted at a .323 clip. He led the team with 35 doubles, 25 homers and 106 RBI.

On the mound, Tom Candiotti's knuckleball danced to the tune of a 20-9 record with a 3.03 ERA. Candy was named the league's top starting pitcher for his efforts. Greg W. Harris posted a 16-9 mark and Pedro Astacio rounded out the starting trio with a 13-9 record and 2.90 ERA. The Hornets' bullpen was anchored by Tom Henke. Tom amassed only 22 of the teams 45 saves, but finished with 8 wins and a brilliant 1.89 ERA. The rest of the pen was by committee, but Greensboro got tremendous left-handed pitching from Jesse Orosco, Rick Honeycutt and Norm Charlton. Fortunately for the rest of the league, Nolan Ryan was injured and was good for only 69 innings.

Past record indicates that the Greensboro franchise is always one that needs to be reckoned with. Gwynn, Alomar, Galarraga, Ryan, Candiotti, Astacio and Henke form a solid nucleus. The Greensboro management only needs to plug a hole here and there with veterans to keep this machine fine tuned.

CAPE CRUSADERS

Brian Pelletier netted National League Coach and General Manager of the year honors with his team's fine showing in the 1994 season. The Crusaders led the National League in pitching and finished second in batting. No wonder they made it to the World Series.

Jack McDowell was the main man on the hill. Mad Jack posted a 24-7 record with a 2.48 ERA that won him the NL Cy Young and Starting Pitcher of the Year awards. His 24 wins tied Ed Whitson's SWBA record set in the 1991 season. Jose Rijo would have been the ace on any team but this one. Rijo finished with 22 wins, good for the second highest total in league history. Jose shined with a 3.27 ERA while leading the SWBA with 245 strikeouts. As if that wasn't enough, arguably the best starting rotation in league history was rounded out by Pat Hentgen and Ben McDonald with 18 and 17 wins respectively. Those four combined for an 81-33 record. Lee Smith anchored a solid bullpen with a NL high 43 saves and 2.59 ERA. Not enough can be said about the brilliance of this pitching staff.

At the plate, Rick Wilkins post-season performance was a reflection of what he had done all season. The all-star catcher batted .318 with 35 homeruns and 96 RBI. Lenny Dykstra set the table for the Crusader bats leading off at a .315 clip. He just missed the 200 hit plateau, but legged out 45 doubles while hitting 22 dingers. His 80 steals led the National League and his 126 runs scored was second only to Barry Bonds' 133. Dykstra and Jeff Kent rounded out the Crusaders' all-star trio of hitters. Ken was named the NL's top secondbaseman by batting .307 with 25 homeruns. Troy Neel also contributed a career year with a .300 average, 26 doubles, 5 triples and 22 homers. The Crusaders led the NL with 196 homeruns and finished second in steals with 215.

This team will remain a strong contender in the SWBA as Pelletier continues to get the most from every draft. It sure looks like there will be a championship for this franchise in the future.

ARIZONA APACHES

Pat Mitchell's scrappy team finished with a franchise best 103 wins and another division title. The Apaches became the first SWBA team to claim four division titles in their history.

This team has been long known for its pitching prowess and the 1994 season was no exception. The Apaches finished with a team ERA of 3.57, second in the National League to the Cape Crusaders. One name synonymous with both the Apaches and good pitching is the cornerstone of the franchise Greg Maddux. Maddux was a very late round acquisition in the inaugural draft of 1988. He posted another outstanding season, finishing with a 20-13 record and 2.74 ERA. Maddux was supported by a pair of 15 game winners in Bob Tewksbury and Ken Hill. Tewks chewed up 235.2 innings in the number two slot while posting a 3.36 ERA. Hill finished with a 3.55 ERA and allowed only 8 homeruns in 195 innings. Roberto Hernandez took over full-time closer duties. He tallied 37 saves to go with his 5-4 record and 2.70 ERA. The Apache bullpen had quantity in addition to quality as six other relievers combined for 17 more saves. Matt Turner turned in an excellent performance in the setup role allowing only 6.69 hits per 9 innings while fanning 9.44. He finished with a 7-1 record and 3.35 ERA.

The offense had somewhat of a different appearance than usual. They said good bye to Mr. Spalding 166 times. A far cry from the "single, bunt or steal" teams of the past. Greg Vaughn hit 37 dingers, scored 101 times and drove in 112 runs to go with a solid .281 average. Luis Gonzalez batted .304, ripped 37 doubles, 6 triples and 20 homeruns. Mark Grace was very solid once again, hitting .315 with 44 doubles and 94 runs.

CHICAGO COBRAS

The franchise turned the corner last year under the leadership of Kevin Griffin, posting the first winning record in its four year history. They didn't even slow down and steam-rolled their way to 101 wins. For his efforts, Griffin won the American League's General Manager of the Year Award.

The Cobras featured a duo of twenty game winners in Mark Langston and Pete Harnisch. From the left side, Langston recorded a 21-12 mark with 3.06 ERA and the AL Cy Young. On the flip side, Harnisch tallied a 20-13 record with 12 complete games and a 3.22 ERA. Dennis Martinez was solid as the third starter with 17 wins. The bullpen was a team effort. Gregg Olson led the Cobras with 13 saves, but six other relievers combined for 21. The combined efforts earned the Cobras the second best team ERA in the American League.

At the plate, all-star third baseman Travis Fryman turned in a career year. He led Cobra regulars with a .319 batting average, 50 doubles, 31 homeruns, 117 runs and 119 RBI. John Jaha hit at a .345 clip with 20 homeruns in 426 at bats. Chris Hoiles was the AL's all-star catcher. He hit 30 homeruns and drove in 96 while hitting at a .314 clip. Tim Salmon was the third Cobra fielder honored with all-star status. Salmon tallied 40 doubles, 25 dingers, 99 runs, 93 RBI and 83 walks to go with his .297 average. Moises Alou with 39 doubles, 29 homers and 99 runs along with Chad Curtis rounded out an excellent outfield. Curtis led the team with 62 stolen bases and finished second with 109 runs scored.

The future looks bright for years to come as General Manager Kevin Griffin continues to push the right buttons to keep the big C machine rolling.

ARIZONA ARROWS

One would normally expect big things from a team that won 95 regular season games. Well, the Arrows finished third in the extremely competitive Clemente Division and obviously didn't make the playoffs.

Barry Bonds is the Arizona Arrows. Bonds turned in another MVP season. Barry hit .318, drilled 43 homeruns and drove in 120 runners. He broke the record he sat last season for walks with 130 and finished second all-time in runs scored with 133. He led the National League with a .444 on-base and finished second with a .600 slugging percentage. Oh yeah, don't forget his 27 steals and 23 assists from left field. Rickey Henderson continued to excel from the top of the Arrows' order. Rickey swiped 70 bases, scored 120 runs, walked 105 times, batted .308 and hit 27 homeruns. Mike Stanley was an offensive force batting .293 and belting 22 round-trippers. Jay Bell was the National League's all-star at shortstop. Bell scored 114 times, hit .288 and legged out 30 doubles while committing only 10 errors at a very tough position. Fred McGriff's batting average dipped below expectations, but the Crime Dog still managed 28 homers, 108 RBI and 94 runs.

On the hill, Chuck Finley turned in a fine season. He amassed a 21-10 record and 4.01 ERA. John Smoltz was the victim of untimely hitting and finished with only a 13-13 mark despite 38 starts and a respectable 3.89 ERA. Mark Clark was a pleasant surprise. The youngster completed one fourth of his starts en route to a 10-4 record with a 3.73 ERA. Manager Joe Hornback is really hoping that is a sign of good things to come. Jimmy Key's season was similar to Smoltzie's, but he did manage to surpass the .500 mark at 12-10. Charlie Hough's old knuckleball danced enough to earn him 13 victories. In the pen, the Arrows had a good one-two punch in Les Lancaster and former Kodiak Ace Jay Howell. Les finished with a 7-2 record, 4 saves and a 2.62 ERA while setting up Howell. Jay won 8 and saved 27 more with his 2.96 ERA. Unfortunately, the rest of the bullpen was both disappointing and thin which probably led to the team's demise. No other reliever finished with a sub-4.00 ERA.

KODIAK ACES

After winning the SWBA Championship in '93, the one thing Aces' management did not want to see from the '94 team was a repeat of the 1992 team that won only 65 games. The Aces received news that the DH rule was now in effect and that doubled already hot season ticket sales. The one drawback was that forced division realignment again and the always tough Greensboro Hornets would be a major road block to the chances of the Aces just repeating as division champions. The team was also watching the Chicago Cobras mortgage the future to enter the race.

Kodiak began defense of the championship at home against the expansion Chicago Gangsters and promptly started off on the right foot in the Kaline division which manager Dougherty figured would be won by the team who could play the best on the road and he stressed that to his players. That proved to be the case as Kodiak shared the top spot with the Hornets and the Cobras well into the final round. Kodiak acquired Bobby Witt from Dobson on the trading deadline, but it was not enough as the Aces faltered at home and on the road down the stretch. Kodiak management and the fans were very disappointed about not repeating, but were happy to see the team put up a good defense of the championship, coming in at 92-70.

Carlos Baerga was the offensive MVP leading the team in 4 categories and setting an Aces record by appearing in 159 games. Orlando Merced led the team in batting with a .343 clip which is another Aces record. The power outage in Kodiak continued with Andre Dawson hitting just 8 dingers after being moved to the DH spot to take advantage of his power in Fulton County Stadium. Dante Bichette led the team with 22 homers and 1st round pick Orestes Destrade sent 20 out of the park. Stolen bases were a huge key during the '93 championship run and again was counted on to pick up the slack, but Pat Listach suffered a bit of a sophomore slump because of injuries and swiped only 53 bags compared to 126 last year. The team stole only 115.

The pitching staff saw some movement to solve the long ball problem this franchise had the last few years. Dave Stewart was brought in from Rolling Meadows and Kodiak sent Charlie Hough and Jay Howell to the Valley of the Sun to suit up in Arizona Arrows' uniforms bringing in Greg Hibbard and Bob Scanlan. That made second year starter Cal Eldred the ace and he came through by posting a 19-11 record and pitching a team record 264 innings. Late season acquisition Bobby Witt chipped in with a 6-2 mark and Jose Guzman also added 14 wins, but the staff was still bothered by the long ball problem, surrendering 141 homeruns. Duane Ward stepped up when Jay Howell left and posted a 4-5 record with a 2.60 ERA and another team record 48 saves. He also fanned 119 batters in 65 innings.

The defense was again a problem for the Aces when the infield committed at least 12 errors per position, including 16 miscues from Terry Steinbach and 23 flubs from Destrade. Merced and Bichette gunned down the runners with 26 and 19 assists respectively to counter the infield problem a little bit.

The Kodiak Aces are now coming to crossroads with the team aging at key positions and some of the younger players not playing to expectations. GM/manager Dougherty will have to spend time finding younger talent in the draft and try to fill holes via the trade route if the Aces are to return to the promised land sooner than later.

CALIFORNIA COOLERS

Charter league member Robert White led his team to its most successful season since the inaugural year when the Coolers were runners up to the World Champion Delaware Destroyers.

John Olerud had a career year playing in the friendly confines of Wrigley Field. Big John established a new SWBA record with 64 two-baggers. He also led the American League in batting (.363), hits (207), walks (109) and on-base percentage (.467). He finished third with a .565 slugging percentage as well. Lance Johnson was the spark at the top of the Cooler order. Lance batted .323, stole 79 bases, scored 103 runs and was second in the league with 12 triples. Brian Harper was just behind Johnson at .319 with 35 doubles and 14 dingers. The 1994 Coolers did not lack offense.

Manager White could have used another good starter. He got the most out of his men as Scott Sanderson turned in an excellent 18-5 season with a 3.84 ERA. Armando Reynoso came on to win 15 games against 6 losses despite a 4.37 ERA. Only one more Cooler hurler finished in double figures in wins and that was Ben Rivera with 10. David West was the man called on to keep opponents at bay late in the game. Dave appeared in a team high 71 games, saving 40 and yielding only 2.49 earned runs per 9 innings. Mike Feters (6-2, 2.66), Don Pall (4-6, 2.97) and Steve Reed (3 saves, 3.75) formed a solid set-up duo. Reed was hurt at times by the long ball and ended up with 9 losses.

The Coolers are made up of a solid foundation of every day players that should keep the team competitive. General Manager White is going to have to address some pitching issues in the near future.

PENNSYLVANIA SLUGGERS

The Pennsylvania Sluggers turned in their second best campaign in franchise history, crossing the finish line at 84-78. Despite having a .512 career winning percentage, the Sluggers have never finished higher than second place in their division. That's where they ended up this year.

Offensively, Pennsylvania was solid. This lineup featured the National League's leading hitter, Derrick May. May just did qualify for the batting title and performed at a .331 clip. He also stole 24 bases and drove in 81 runs. All-star first baseman, Wally Joyner, was the team MVP. He batted .316 with 34 doubles, 21 homers, 107 RBI and scored 88 times. Ryne Sandberg, the Sluggers' second round pick in the 1988 dispersal draft, continued to be the cornerstone of the organization. He hit a very solid .315 with 27 doubles and 82 runs scored. Otis Nixon was the catalyst at the top of the order with a .384 on-base average and 59 stolen bases.

Doug Drabek was probably the biggest disappointment on the hill. Manager Chris Dugan counts on Drabek to be the man, but this year he didn't quite live up to expectations. He won only 11 games with an ERA very close to 4.00. Sid Fernandez was the bright spot as he won 11 also in 110 less innings. El Sid posted a spectacular 2.39 ERA and gave up 32 fewer hits than innings pitched. Curt Schilling pitched pretty much as expected with a 14-15 year and 3.84 ERA. Curt finished third in the NL with 222 strikeouts. Randy Myers held his position as one of the top lefty closers in the league with a 6-6 record, 3.25 ERA and 30 saves. Cris Carpenter excelled in the set-up role, posting a 3-0 record, 4 saves and 3.03 ERA.

This pitching staff is going to need some help next year as Drabek and Schilling have some injuries that are going to prevent them from playing the full season.

OKLAHOMA SWITZERS

The Oklahoma Switzers fell 15 games from their 99-win, first place showing in 1993. The team struggled offensively, near the bottom of the American League in hitting and that pretty much accounted for their demise.

The pitching staff featured 20-game winner, Steve Avery. Avery was the workhorse, starting 37 games and pitching 251 innings. Only Mark Langston had more wins in the AL. Tom Gordon did a good job in the number three spot. He led the AL with 4 shutouts and finished with a 12-6 record and 3.77 ERA. Wilson Alvarez was roughed up in the number two spot. Alvarez set an SWBA record with 132 bases on balls. He lost 5 more games than he won, despite having a decent 3.69 ERA. He was either brilliant, or awful. Manager Pat Burroughs got everything he asked for out of his bullpen. Kenny Rogers led the league in games pitched with 80. He finished at 8-6 with a 3.16 ERA. Matt Whiteside was the other set-up man. Whiteside had a 3.56 ERA in 78.1 innings. The closer, Jeff Montgomery, tallied 9 wins (4th on the team) to go along with his 31 saves and 2.25 ERA.

Juan Gonzalez was the lone bright spot offensively. He posted American League highs of 52 homers and 134 runs batted in. His 36 doubles helped him lead the league with a .617 slugging percentage as well. Frank Thomas had a good year for almost any other player, but his .277 average and 36 homeruns were not what Burroughs was expecting. The Switzers had a very tough season, actually getting thrown out more times than they stole a base. Their 138 errors led to 102 un-earned runs.

The future is always bright for this team. Burroughs works hard on the draft every year and patience is definitely one of his virtues. A nucleus of Juan Gonzalez, Frank Thomas, Robin Ventura, Ivan Rodriguez, Ray Lankford and Steve Avery provide the depth needed to win consistently in this league.

PHOENIX PHANTOMS

Manager Michael Hedt's Phoenix Phantoms turned in their best performance in their 3 years in the SWBA. The Phantoms battled their way to an 81-81 mark.

Pitching was the main reason this team made the .500 level. Orel Hershisier was the staff ace, putting up numbers of 15-14 and 3.06 ERA. The Bulldog allowed only 218 hits while striking out 152 batters in 244.1 innings. Juan Guzman finished the season with an 11-6 record and 3.54 ERA. Andy Benes led the team with 199 strikeouts and had a good ERA of 3.53 and also won 11 ball games. Greg McMichael captured the National League Rookie of the Year Award appearing in 84 games with a fantastic 11-5 record and 3.10 ERA as the set-up man. John Wetteland had 7 wins and 33 saves as the Phantoms' closer.

Tim Raines was the most consistent player offensively. Rock batted .290 with 17 homeruns and 35 stolen bases. Mo Vaughn contributed 25 dingers and 92 RBI. Mike Pagliarulo was very solid when he was in the game, batting .318 with 24 doubles in 422 at bats. Despite hitting only .243, Dave Justice played every day and led the team in homeruns with 31, runs with 87 and runs batted in with 96. Chuck Carr and Lou Frazier finished 3rd and 5th in the National League in steals with 60 and 54 respectively. These numbers could have increased greatly had either one had an on-base higher than .320.

The future of the team looks to be brighter as the team builds around a good pitching staff and the tandem of Dave Justice and Mo Vaughn.

MINNESOTA MUDHENS

It was a breakthrough season for the Hens. No longer the door mat of the league by reaching a franchise high of 81 wins! In the words of Homer Simpson, Whoooo, Hooooooo! Speaking of Homers, the production was down as the Hens left the power punch to two aging Vets Hrbek and Winfield. Kent "buy a vowel" Hrbek swatted 28 over the Hefty in right. Dave Winfield returning to his home town also clubbed 28. Both led the team in that category. The one duck who seemed never to be left on the pond, was Minnesota's MVP, Kenny Lofton. With numbers like these it's no wonder he captured the title: AVG .319 / 132 RUNS / 104 SB / 96 BB / .409 OBP. The team as a whole hit well (.272), Gates (.302), Mclemore (.293), Winfield (.305) and what Management believes made this team competitive was the bench depth. When it came down to the late innings, manager Michurski had Pecota (.345) and Brewer (.290) to pinch hit.

When it came to pitching, it was rookie Arocha that lifted this team to a .500 mark. Arocha looked like the best pitcher with a 16 and 7 record. But on paper it was again Appier that carried the load. Appier achieved best ERA of any Hen starter in the history of the team with 2.56. Again Appier appeared to be the iron man with 264 innings pitched, 196 K's, a record of 15 and 9 while giving up only 8 homers. Mitch (the wild thing) Williams had most saves with 14. Although manager Michurski couldn't really settle on a main closer. Carl (The Big Train) Willis had 11 saves and Brantley 7. Next year management would like to see both Williams and Willis gone, and move Brantley into the closer role.

There were still disappointments and holes that still needed filling. The G-man (Gary Gaetti) only managed an avg. slightly over the Mendosa line, hitting only .217. Management still hasn't found a catcher since the Stanley/Berryhill debacle. The infield seams set but a power hitting outfielder could help immensely, because Winfield's return is questionable. As far as pitching goes. Other than Appier the young staff of Fleming, Kile, Arocha is still in question. "We'd like to be at least three deep in starters next year but it doesn't look good so far", said GM Michurski.

SAN DIEGO RANGERS

The San Diego Rangers turned in an average performance in 1994. No players were really standouts, but not too many were huge disappointments either.

The pitching probably reflected this more than anything. Starters John Burkett, Chris Hammond and Ricky Bones all turned in .500 performances with each having as many losses as wins. Chris Bosio was 13-10, but Jim Abbott's 6-9 record balanced him out for an overall 57-57 record for the top 5 starters. The main setup men, Jim Poole (1.87 ERA, 2-2) and Danny Cox (2.96 ERA, 3-1) were excellent. Rick Aguilera turned in a great performance as well with 26 saves in only 43 innings with a 2.72 ERA.

Rookie first round pick Mike Lansing led all Ranger regulars offensively. He batted .289 with 30 doubles, 7 homeruns and 32 stolen bases. He also managed a solid .351 on-base percentage. Pete Incaviglia was limited to 389 at bats, but made the best of them hitting .283 with 26 homeruns. Charlie Hayes led the team 615 AB, 39 doubles, 28 homers, 93 runs and 92 RBI. Sammy Sosa and Darren Daulton, two key players in the Ranger lineup, had off years that hurt tremendously.

This team will get better in the future as the pitching is pretty solid and there are a lot of offensive threats.

WAGRAM WARHAWKS

The Wagram Warhawks have rode the curtails of the SWBA's number one pick overall, Roger Clemens, since the inaugural season. The super pitcher was human this year, resulting in a below .500 performance from the team.

The Rocket was 12-10 with a 4.00 ERA. That's such a far cry from what Scott Firman had come to expect from his Ace. Roger leads almost every positive pitching category for his career in the SWBA. This includes the best three individual season pitching performances and is the only qualifier to have a sub-2.00 ERA and he did it twice. This season was a major let down from last year's 21 win, 2.05 ERA performance. No one else on the team picked up any of the slack either. Mike Moore, at 11-19 with a 5.99 ERA, was the only other Warhawk to have double figures in wins. The best starter for this year was rookie first round pick Kirk Rueter who compiled a promising 3.61 ERA in 16 starts. Greg Harris was steady and managed to save nearly one third of the Wagram wins, but also collected 8 losses.

The Warhawks did boast the leagues best first and second basemen. Rafael Palmeiro mad a run for the league MVP title with his .333 average, 48 doubles, 37 homeruns, 115 runs, 125 RBI, 87 walks and 51 stolen bases. Chuck Knoblauch finished with a .263 average, 91 runs, 53 steals and surprisingly was second in RBI with 90. Overall, the team lacked power and amassed a team slugging percentage below .400. It is tough for an American League team to win without the long ball and Wagram hit only 105 round trippers.

The Warhawks expect to get back into things as Clemens returns to his old self and kids like Kirk Rueter and Hipolito Pichardo develop. The team sure could benefit by putting some more bats around Palmeiro and Knoblauch who can be counted on for years to come.

RICHMOND STALLIONS

Ambrose was handed a team that was pitching poor but managed to finish the season with a 4.28 team ERA, not great, but not in the cellar either. Alex Fernandez (16-13, 4.09) and Dwight Gooden (12-13, 3.54) were the only Stallion hurlers to finish in double-figure wins. Mike Mussina pitched pretty good at a 3.64 pace, but managed only an 8-9 record in 27 starts. Everything blew up in Frank Tanana's face. Twenty-five gopher balls led to a 5.32 ERA and 8-15 season. Dennis Eckersley did everything he could. Despite not having tons of opportunities, Eck managed to save 21 games and had an excellent 2.42 ERA. The rest of the bullpen wasn't much help at all.

At the plate, the Richmond lineup featured all-star third sacker, Matt Williams. The big guy racked up 37 homeruns and 118 RBI to go with his .283 average. Darryl Hamilton finished with a decent season, stealing 25 bases, scoring 81 runs and hitting .294. George Brett's career is winding down, but that didn't prevent him from batting .296 with 24 doubles. Deion Sanders batted .282 and stole 48 bases in 309 at bats before reporting to football training camp. Ron Gant displayed power (32 homeruns) and speed (47 steals), but was expected to hit much better than .250.

This has been one of the most successful teams in the SWBA since they entered as an expansion franchise in 1990. There is no reason to believe that they won't rebound from this season.

HANNIBAL CANNIBALS

Steve Hamilton started his third complete season at the helm of the Hannibal franchise with the hopes of vastly improving on last season's 66 win performance. He nabbed highly-touted Cliff Floyd in the first round of the draft, knowing it would take some time for the youngster to develop. The team did manage 7 more wins than last season, but that was still a little short of expectations.

Jeff Bagwell anchors the Hannibal offense. He was hands down the offensive MVP of this team. Bags tied for third in the league in hitting with his .333 average. He also legged out 31 doubles and went the distance 25 times. He barely missed the century mark in runs (98) to go with his 105 RBI. Jeff also walked 84 times to finish third in on-base percentage with a .427 mark. Greg Jefferies turned in a solid performance. Greg has been pretty much a disappointment since being taken the number 3 pick overall in the 1989 draft, but batted .304 with 27 doubles, 87 runs and 44 stolen bases. Dean Palmer belted 27 dingers and drove in 102 runs, but was saddled with the league lead in strikeouts (182) and errors (33).

On the hill, the ace was David Wells. He finished with a 14-13 record and 3.83 ERA. Danny Darwin was 12-14 with a 3.97 ERA, but was hampered by the league leading 48 gopher balls he served up. Rod Beck tallied 37 saves with a 3.61 ERA, but his 11 losses were fourth on the team.

The future of the Cannibals certainly looks bright. With Todd Hundley behind the plate, Bagwell at first, Biggio at second, Palmer at third and Clayton at shortstop, the fans in Hannibal ought to be able to cheer for years to come. With the likes of Floyd, Brian Jordan and Hal Morris in the wings, the team looks to compete for the division in the near future. Most of the holes this team has to fill is on the mound....

ROLLING MEADOWS ROADRUNNERS

Second year manager Brian Blount had a tough challenge ahead of him. The Roadrunner franchise had won the very first SWBA World Series as the Delaware Destroyers in 1988, but hadn't made the playoff since. It would not happen this year either as the team struggled to a 67-95 record.

The team has a solid nucleus of hitters. Albert "don't call me Joey" Belle had a near MVP season. The big guy belted 39 dingers, legged out 38 doubles, scored 110 runs and drove in 128. He was even a threat on the base paths, swiping 30. Paul Molitor was the catalyst of the offense, finishing 2nd in the NL in hitting with a .328 average. He also racked up 34 doubles, 6 triples, 12 homers, 33 steals (with only 2 caught) and 109 runs scored. Bernard Gilkey continued to show a promising future, which earned him an every day role. He responded with a .291 average, 9 triples and 43 doubles. Mark Whiten showed some pop (20 homers) and Kirt Manwaring was solid behind the plate (.268, 52 RBI).

On the hill, one guy had to do it all. David Cone wore that big "S" on the front of his uniform, but even Superman couldn't have pitched this team into the playoffs. Cone posted a 17-13 mark with a National League leading 12 complete games and a 3.58 ERA. He also fanned 240 batters and earned a save in his only relief appearance. No other Roadrunner finished with more than 8 victories. No other pitcher with over 100 innings had a sub-4.30 ERA. Rolling Meadows' third, third-round pick, Phil Leftwich showed a lot of promise. The Witch racked up an 8-2 record with a 2.48 ERA in 12 starts. The bullpen was adequate with Chuck McElroy (1.88), Todd Frohwirth (3.40) and Tom Urbani (3.79). Richie Lewis was the closer and posted 19 saves and a 3.88 ERA.

The organization is looking to highly touted youngsters David Nied and Robb Nen to help Cone out down the road. The offense is in good shape with Molly and Belle anchoring the youngsters...

DOBSON RANCH BASHERS

In August of 1993, a new expansion franchise was formed and it was named the Dobson Ranch Bashers. The new owner/manager was David Kruper. Manager Kruper had been in past SWBA seasons, including the mid-'91 season to the mid-'92 season. Ownership wanted to build a franchise from the bottom up, and had given the GM/manager a new 5-year contract to get the job done. The SWBA expanded by 4 teams for the 1994 season, however, the new expansion teams had only two real teams to choose from. Talent from those two teams were slim. Also, a first to add players on the expansion teams, the SWBA had to protect 15 to 20 players, so the new expansion teams could draft 20 players each for a total of 80 players. Each existing SWBA team lost 4 players. In the annual entry draft, the expansion teams drafted after all of the existing teams. Having enough at-bats and innings-pitched was a problem for the four new franchises.

The 1994 season started out fine. After the first round, the Bashers stood at 13-14. But, the Bashers would never post a winning record in any of the six rounds. Rounds 2-6 were: 10-20, 10-14, 12-14, 8-18 and 8-21. After four rounds, the Bashers stood at a respectable 45-62. At-bat and innings became a problem thereafter and the team took a nose dive in the standings to finish their first season at 61-101.

The offense for the Bashers was better than expected. They hit a respectable .258 as a team, with a .315 on-base and .397 slugging percentage, while scoring 687 runs. Wil Cordero, the first player ever selected by the Bashers, led the team with 147 games played, 76 rbi and 26 doubles. The homerun leader was Jeff Reed with 22. Delino DeShields, the second player taken, led the Bashers with 79 runs scored and 46 stolen bases. Journeymen Todd Benzinger and Jeff Treadway led the Bashers in batting with .381 and .371 averages respectively. Young prospects Danny Bautista, Bob Hamelin and Scott Stahoviak hit .373, .333 and .302. Troy O'Leary hit .333. The young prospects didn't have enough at-bats available to make a big impact.

The pitching, as expected, was dreadful. The numbers on the team for pitching were 1437.2 innings, 1603 hits allowed, 883 runs allowed (793 earned), 607 walks and 163 homeruns allowed for a fat 4.96 ERA. Joe Magrane was 4-18 with a 6.25 ERA. Ron Darling was 8-18 with a 6.17 ERA. Bobby Witt was 8-12 with a 4.77 ERA before being traded for a 2nd round pick next year. The foundation of the rotation, steady Kevin Gross, was 13-15 with a 4.33 ERA and led the team with 203.2 innings. The top performer was bullpen ace Bryan Harvey, who led the Bashers with 26 saves and a 1.70 ERA. Jeff Fassero was a very good 7-8 with a 2.30 ERA. Jesse Orosco had a 2.45 ERA before being traded for a 3rd round pick next year. The surprise of the pitching staff was Paul Wagner who went 6-5 with 4 saves and a 3.66 ERA, much better than real-life.

All in all, the Bashers did about what was expected from them, management expects to do better next year. GM/manager Kruper knows it will be an uphill battle to compete against the Clemente Division strong-teams - Apaches, Arrows and Roughnecks. The Bashers policy was to trade older veteran players who had good years for younger players or draft picks. Before the season started, the Bashers traded away Dion James for a 2nd and 7th round pick in this year's draft, acquiring Paul Wagner with the 2nd and Kerry Taylor with the 7th. They also traded away Charlie O'Brien and Kevin Bass for a 3rd round pick next year. During the season, the Bashers shipped away veterans Tom Foley and Lonnie Smith for Craig Paquette and a 4th round pick next year. Trevor Wilson the Basher's best pitcher despite limited innings was exchanged for a 2nd next year. So next year, Dobson Ranch will have three 2nd round picks, three 3rd round picks and two 4th round picks. With young players like Wil Cordero and Delino DeShields forming the nucleus, throwing in this year's draft picks, and the Bashers are off to a good start. Dave Kruper is excited about the team's future, hoping to compete for a title in 2-3 years. Dobson Ranch is on the rise!

CHICAGO GANGSTERS

One need only look to the Gangsters record to know they were one of the SWBA's expansion franchises this year. With the number one pick overall going into the 1995 season, the Gang can only hope to get better.

The pitching staff had a very, very tough time of it this season. Records of futility were set as no Gangster pitcher managed to win 10 games. Scott Erickson tied the SWBA all-time high with 23 losses. The only Chicago regular to break the 4.00 ERA mark was reliever Mark Eichorn. Ike finished with a 3-3 record, 3 saves and a 3.61 ERA. Jeff Reardon led the team in saves despite a 4.97 ERA. Jack Armstrong had the lowest ERA of the starters, but got absolutely no run support to finish the season at 2-19.

Ozzie Smith was the top hitter. The Wizard finished with a .260 average, 23 doubles, 6 triples and 20 stolen bases. Robin Yount was not far behind, batting .253 with 27 doubles, 9 dingers and 21 steals. Danny Tartabull provided the pop, ripping 49 doubles, 22 homers and 72 RBI, all team highs.

As stated earlier, the only thing good about being at the bottom is there is only one way to go and that is up. Expect for the Gangsters to be a much better second year team, as they try to recover from the "expansion team blues".
